

Dragons Fly

You feel the dawn Slowly coming on It holds the moon

Then you'll see Just what it means to be Under the moonlight, baby/waiting

How we've been so doomed Watching dragons cross the moon
As dreams of youth

And it seems we've been walking in a dream all along, far too long, there

You're drifting away
I know the feeling
It's pressing through you
It feels so complete

I.....
Did you suddenly find can see all your senses reel
that you're reeling as the intensity climbed beyond your pace to feel it's beyond what feels and then your Dragons Fly home

On dragon's wings
You've fixed your dreams
Under the moon across the gloom, there

You're drifting away
I know the feeling
It's pressing the way
You can't believe it's true
Driving and strained
You find your heart beat Begin to betray all restraint

And now.....
Did you suddenly find
You find
your senses reeling as the intensity climbed intensity beyond your pace to feel beyond what feels
and then your Dragons Fly home
