

Nobody Cares

nobody cares about you here so what do you fear?
cause somebody cares about you where you'd least expect it
 so why don't you get on along?
 forget all these things you think you know remember that life is not a show and then you can live & let go

so why do you care?
never believe in their fanfare they don't know shit
 so why don't you get on along?
 give-up on your tales of strife and woe so why don't you live & let go? but don't slip away
 when you feel the end is drawing near look again
 just live & let go

so, why don't you get on along?
that's when you'll begin to make it show
and then you can Live & Let Go then you can Live & Let Go
